EDWARD FERRELL + LEWIS MITTMAN

Tuft love? It's all the rage, and two of the latest offerings from Edward Ferrell + Lewis Mittman home furnishings make it easy to see why. Gorgeous tufting on luxurious fabric makes standouts in the furniture landscape of both the "Dunaway" sofa by Marks & Frantz—a fresh take on the traditional chesterfield—and the "Talon" lounge chair by Phillip Jeffries—a contemporary interpretation of a traditional Klismos-style lounge chair. BEACON HILL

Patterns, a new book from Phaidon that offers an insider's look at the Design Library, the world's largest archive of patterns and textiles, has inspired a capsule collection of textiles by Beacon Hill. "Maurice," above, is one of three documents from the book that have been reimagined in fabric for the Imprint collection, which celebrates designs originally popular among French and Italian fashion houses. BOOKCASE

DE LE CUONA

When it comes to fabrics, Bernie de Le Cuona believes that the magic is in the details. Her new collection of paisleys, Demure Drama by de Le Cuona, is so detailed that only 3 meters can be woven per loom per day. Three designs of the handcrafted wool-and-cotton fabrics are available in palettes ranging from calm to vibrant. (delecuona.com)

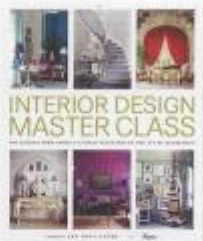

Amelia Handegan: Rooms

by Amelia Handegan
Take a tour of several Southern homes that wear the stamp of Charleston-based interior designer Amelia Handegan in this beautifully photographed book. From a colorful South Carolina beach cottage to a refurbished 18th-century Virginia plantation house, these homes offer an intriguing mix of Old World elements and contemporary furnishings. (Rizzoli New York, $50)

A House by the Sea

by Bunny Williams
In her latest book, design icon Bunny Williams invites readers to explore La Colina, her Caribbean retreat tucked among tropical gardens. In addition to offering a peek at both indoor and outdoor rooms, this volume includes essays on architecture, collecting, and cooking, all written by friends of Williams who have visited the property. (Abrams, $60)

Interior Design Master Class: 100 Lessons from America's Finest Decorators on the Art of Decoration

edited by Carl Dellatore
Some of the world's best interior designers—including both legends and members of the new guard—share strategies for designing a home, from fundamentals to finishing touches. The designers' ideas are illustrated with images of their work. (Rizzoli New York, $50)
